Choosing the Right Secondary School for Your Child

Selecting the right secondary school for your child is a significant decision that will impact their lives and personal development. The best choice should align with your child's personality, strengths, and weaknesses.

Understanding Your Child's Personality

Every child is unique, and their school should support their individual characteristics. An outgoing child may thrive in a large, bustling environment with plenty of extracurricular opportunities, while a more reserved child might feel more comfortable in a smaller, close-knit school. If your child enjoys structure and discipline, a traditional school with a clear routine may suit them, whereas a creative and independent learner might flourish in a more flexible, progressive environment.

Considering Strengths and Weaknesses

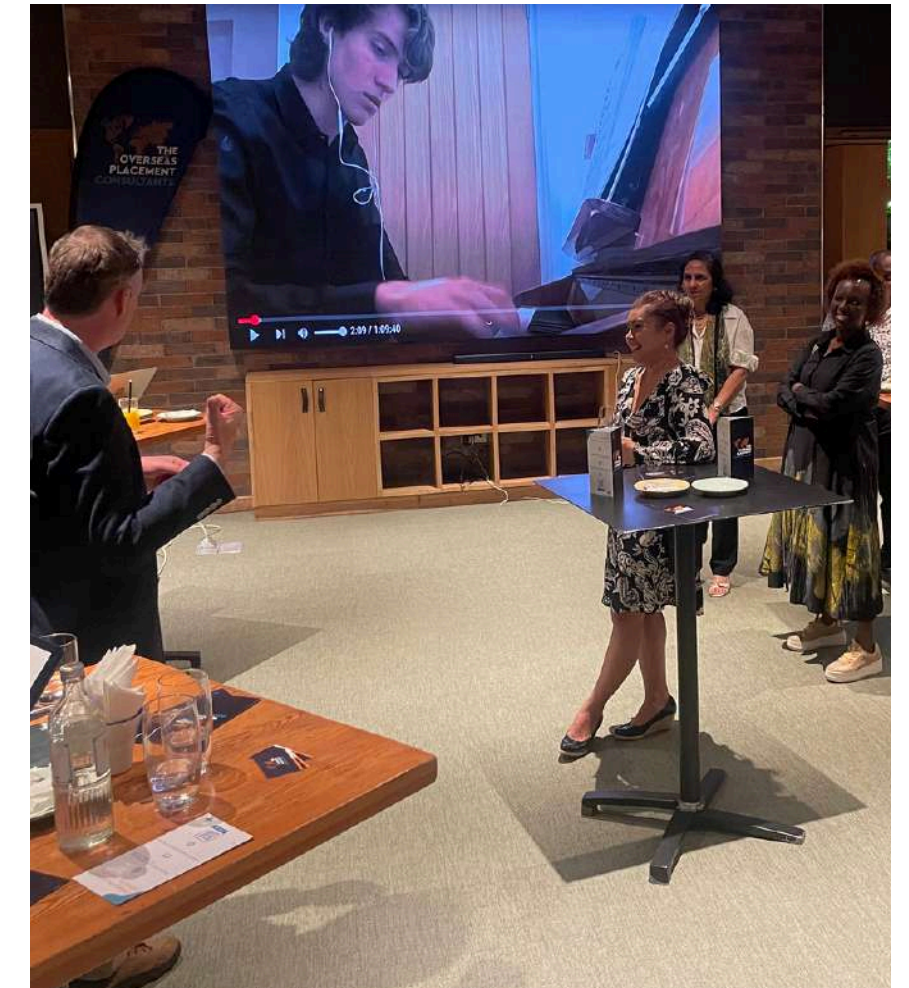

Your child's strengths and weaknesses should also influence your decision. If they excel academically, a school with a strong focus on academics and high-achieving peers may challenge them appropriately.

If they struggle with certain subjects, a school with excellent learning support services can help them build confidence. Similarly, if they have a passion for sports, arts, or technology, selecting a school with strong programs in these areas can foster their talents.

How The Overseas Placement Consultants Can Help

With so many schools to choose from, The Overseas Placement Consultants can provide invaluable guidance. We meet and get to know your child's abilities, interests, and personality to recommend schools where they will thrive. Our consultants have in-depth knowledge of school cultures, teaching styles, and admission processes, ensuring you make an informed choice.

By considering your child's unique needs and seeking expert advice, we can help in finding a secondary school in Kenya, the UK or, elsewhere where they will be happy, engaged, and supported in reaching their full potential.

Keswick School, sheltered at the foot of the mighty Skiddaw mountain, not only leads the Lakes Language Hub, but it is also home to Lairthwaite Boarding House where up to 52 boarders, from all over the world, come together to share their experiences. Celebrated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2017, Keswick is a centre for outdoor activities and cultural experiences, making it an ideal base for our boarders to explore the Lake District.

Our Wellbeing Program urges our boarders to “Get Outdoors” and enjoy the region’s exceptional natural beauty and its pioneering conservation efforts. We encourage our boarders to take up this mantle and be environmentally conscious citizens who look after natural spaces and help create safe havens for wildlife.

The house is set on the edge of the school grounds and only a two-minute walk to school, where students receive an outstanding education (Ofsted 2024) from highly qualified, enthusiastic teachers and a supportive pastoral team.

Experienced, caring boarding staff create a ‘home from home’ experience where we have two golden retrievers, Venus and Freyja who the children adore and who are always available for playtime and cuddles. We have a weekly newsletter that keeps our parents fully informed of the day to day life in our boarding house and the weekly activities. To fully support families from overseas, we offer a bespoke transport service to and from Penrith train station and Manchester airport for all major holidays.
